PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, highway travel in these United States and South Dakota has increased greatly in recent years; and

WHEREAS, service to the highway traveler has made the motel-motor court industry one of the largest in the State of South Dakota in a comparatively brief period of time; and

WHEREAS, this industry offers employment to many of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, the motel-motor court industry of the United States and the State of South Dakota offers facilities for every taste and pocketbook, and courteously, efficiently and economically served this increased demand for highway lodgings:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 2-8, 1955, as

and call for the proper observance of the occasion so that due recognition may be accorded this vital young industry for its contributions to our daily lives and in spreading the fame of South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 25th day of April, 1955.
